Creech St Michael Party in the Park

Creech Party in the Park shortlisted for an award

A community event held in Creech St Michael in July has been nominated for a national award.

The Creech Party in the Park event has been nominated in the Fields in Trust (FIT) awards. FIT protect open spaces all across the country, from sports pitches to children's playgrounds, bicycle trails to country parks, FIT make sure that all kinds of outdoor spaces are safeguarded forever. Creech St Michael Recreation Park is one of these protected places.

The event is shortlisted in the "Best Have a Field Day on a Fields in Trust site" following the success of the day on 11 July which saw over a 1000 people enjoying the fun packed line-up which included drama, dance and sport displays, music, family games, reptile handling, petting zoo, donkey rides, archery and train rides.

The awards ceremony takes place at Lords Cricket Ground in London on 2nd December and two members of the organising committee, Mina Guest and Jo Morrison, will be attending the event.

The organisers said "We are absolutely delighted to have been nominated. Party in the Park is a great event which involves the whole community, and we're so proud of all our supporters, volunteers, committee members and sponsors that help make the event happen."
